

ALBANY DESK

BY TOM FAULKNER

Part of the Albany range, this is the first desk designed by Tom Faulkner. Like the rest of the Albany range the design is strong and distinctive with solid clean lines. It is an incredibly versatile desk that fits into both a traditional and contemporary interior. It can be tailor made to fit your measurements and finished in any of our standard or specialist finishes (including hand-polished stainless steel), which can then be combined with a leather colour of your choice. The Albany desk is part of our hugely popular Avenues range.
