

CURSA DINING CHAIR

BY DE LA ESPADA

Making reference to the second-brightest star in the constellation of Eridanus, Cursa is a fully upholstered dining chair with an intertwined structure and backrest. Cursa was designed with consideration for the whole volume and the negative space; its interior structure in solid timber allows a play of thicknesses around its curves. Part of a seating series that also includes a lounge chair

Dimensions

For detailed information, click below:
173 Cursa Dining Chair

Material Options

Available in a wide selection of upholstery options.