

CYLINDER: SYSTEM

BY APPARATUS

CYLINDER: SYSTEM
The concept encourages you to chart your path through your scene and to bring attention to the things you find meaningful. Canopy units are the building blocks of the path, along which lamp units of various character are placed. The light is soft-edged, warm, diffused and can be directed to find the object of its affection.

Dimensions

Please click here to see configurations + dimensions.

Material Options

Finishes to order. Tarnished silver available at an up charge. Customization available.

Lamping

Lamping dependant upon configuration.