

MIES FOUR SEASONS STOOL

BY KNOLL

Dimensions

Created for the Four Seasons Restaurant at the Seagram Building in New York, this design with its cantilevered chrome frame and lean profile, is believed to be a collaborative effort between Mies van der Rohe, who designed the building, and Phillip Johnson, who designed the restaurant.

Material Options

17"W x 17"D x 30"H