

PEDREGAL LANTERNE - WIDE OR TALL

BY DE TROUPE

The PEDREGAL pendant series is inspired by the distinct modernism and materials explored by Mexican architect Luis Barragan's work at the Pedregal Gardens, a dense lava field outside Mexico City which formed thousands of years ago.
Generously scaled parchment lampshades secured by hand-stitched leather lacework. Emits a soft light that washes over the hand finished brass hardware and canopy. Available in both Tall and Wide configurations.
Other sizes can be considered.
