

SQUIDGE SCONCE

BY ANNA KARLIN

Crystal clear molten glass is poured into a graphite mold to create the sculptural body of the sconce, which is pierced by a hand-blown white glass cone and mounted to a bronze backplate armature.

Notes
Glass may include bubbles and variation. Bronze may show pitting, with each detail contributing to the piece's character.

Dimensions

For detailed information, please click here.