681T TWENTY-FIVE DINING TABLE - TIMBER TOP

By De La Espada Atelier

Twenty-Five is a solid wood dining table inspired by the structure of bridges and their arches. The design reflects mid-century Scandinavian, French and Portuguese influences in an understated form.

The tabletop makes a feature of its construction, with locking dowels punctuating the expanse; this calls attention to where planks meet end-to-end joined with hidden mortises and through-tenons. The gently sloping edge and rounded corners of the tabletop invite touch.
